Adding More Mileage

As our travel continues and more covid restrictions are lifted, we were able to visit more states for meetings. We visited churches in Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey, Connecticut, and New Jersey. We're very thankful for being able to continue to have deputation even in the midst of these challenging times. Though one of the biggest upside of those covid restrictions is that there is much less traffic everyone we go! We used to leave before or after rush hour but now that doesn't matter anymore.

Numerous preaching

During our meetings, I was blessed with the opportunity to do a lot of preaching at various churches. Whenever we use our spiritual gifts, it draws us more nigh to God as we seek Him. Many of the messages consisted of subjects such as helping others to know the Scriptures; the role of the Holy Spirit and how we can work with Him better; comparing and contrasting wisdom with foolishness, power with weakness; God making the deaf and others; the best way to follow the Great Commission; the love of money; how to have the heart of God; and true enlightenment. If you want to listen to any of these, they're on my website (in the grey column to the left).

During one of those preaching sessions, I was on a platform roughly about ten feet up and my son Aiden was in the front row, playing with his toys while Colleen was interpreting for me. As I was speaking, Aiden started to climb up the steps. I could see everyone's eyes take off me and onto the toddler. He climbed up steps many times before so I wasn't worry about him falling off but you could see the nervousness in the congregation's eyes as he inched closer to the top. I kept it cool and kept on preaching. When he finally came up, he walked over to me and asked me to pick him up. Then I start "speaking" with just one hand while I was holding him up for a few minutes until he was ready to come back down. I'll definitely cherish that memory!

Support

Since our last report, our support level went up from 54% to 59%! Since we've started traveling again, we can see more support coming in. We only had to cancel and reschedule one meeting for next year because of covid. We very grateful for the continued progress we have made and for your prayers.

Prayer Requests

- As usual, for support to continue to increase.
- For more meetings in the first half of 2021, we have several open dates.
- For God to prepare the hearts of the deaf in Philadelphia.
